In Memoriam

Michael Heathcoat Amory

(October 2, 1941 – February 24, 2016)

Friend to many of us;
indefatigable benefactor of the International Oak Society;
motor of numerous acorn-collecting expeditions around the world that have enriched our collections and knowledge;
soul and spirit of the inspirational oak collection at Chevithorne Barton;
dear Michael, you will be missed by all who knew you.

May you live on in our thoughts and in our passion for the genus to which you have devoted so much.
